JOINT STATEMENT

This is an employment discrimination case brought under Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, alleging retaliation. A scheduling order has entered in a related case, 04cv30192. To the extent possible, this proposed schedule has been synchronized with the schedule in the related case.

A. Automatic Disclosures

The parties will exchange by July 15, 2005, the information required by Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(a)(1).

B. Discovery Plan

Discovery will be required on liability and damages. Expert discovery is not anticipated and phased discovery is not appropriate.

1. All interrogatories and requests for production are to be served by August 15, 2005.

2. All depositions should be completed by October 15, 2005.

C. Other Matters

1. Dispositive motions, if any, are to be filed by

November 15, 2005.

2. Trial of this matter should take one week.
3. The parties' certification will be filed separately.

Respectfully submitted,

THE PLAINTIFF
